A TIME TO REMEMBER.

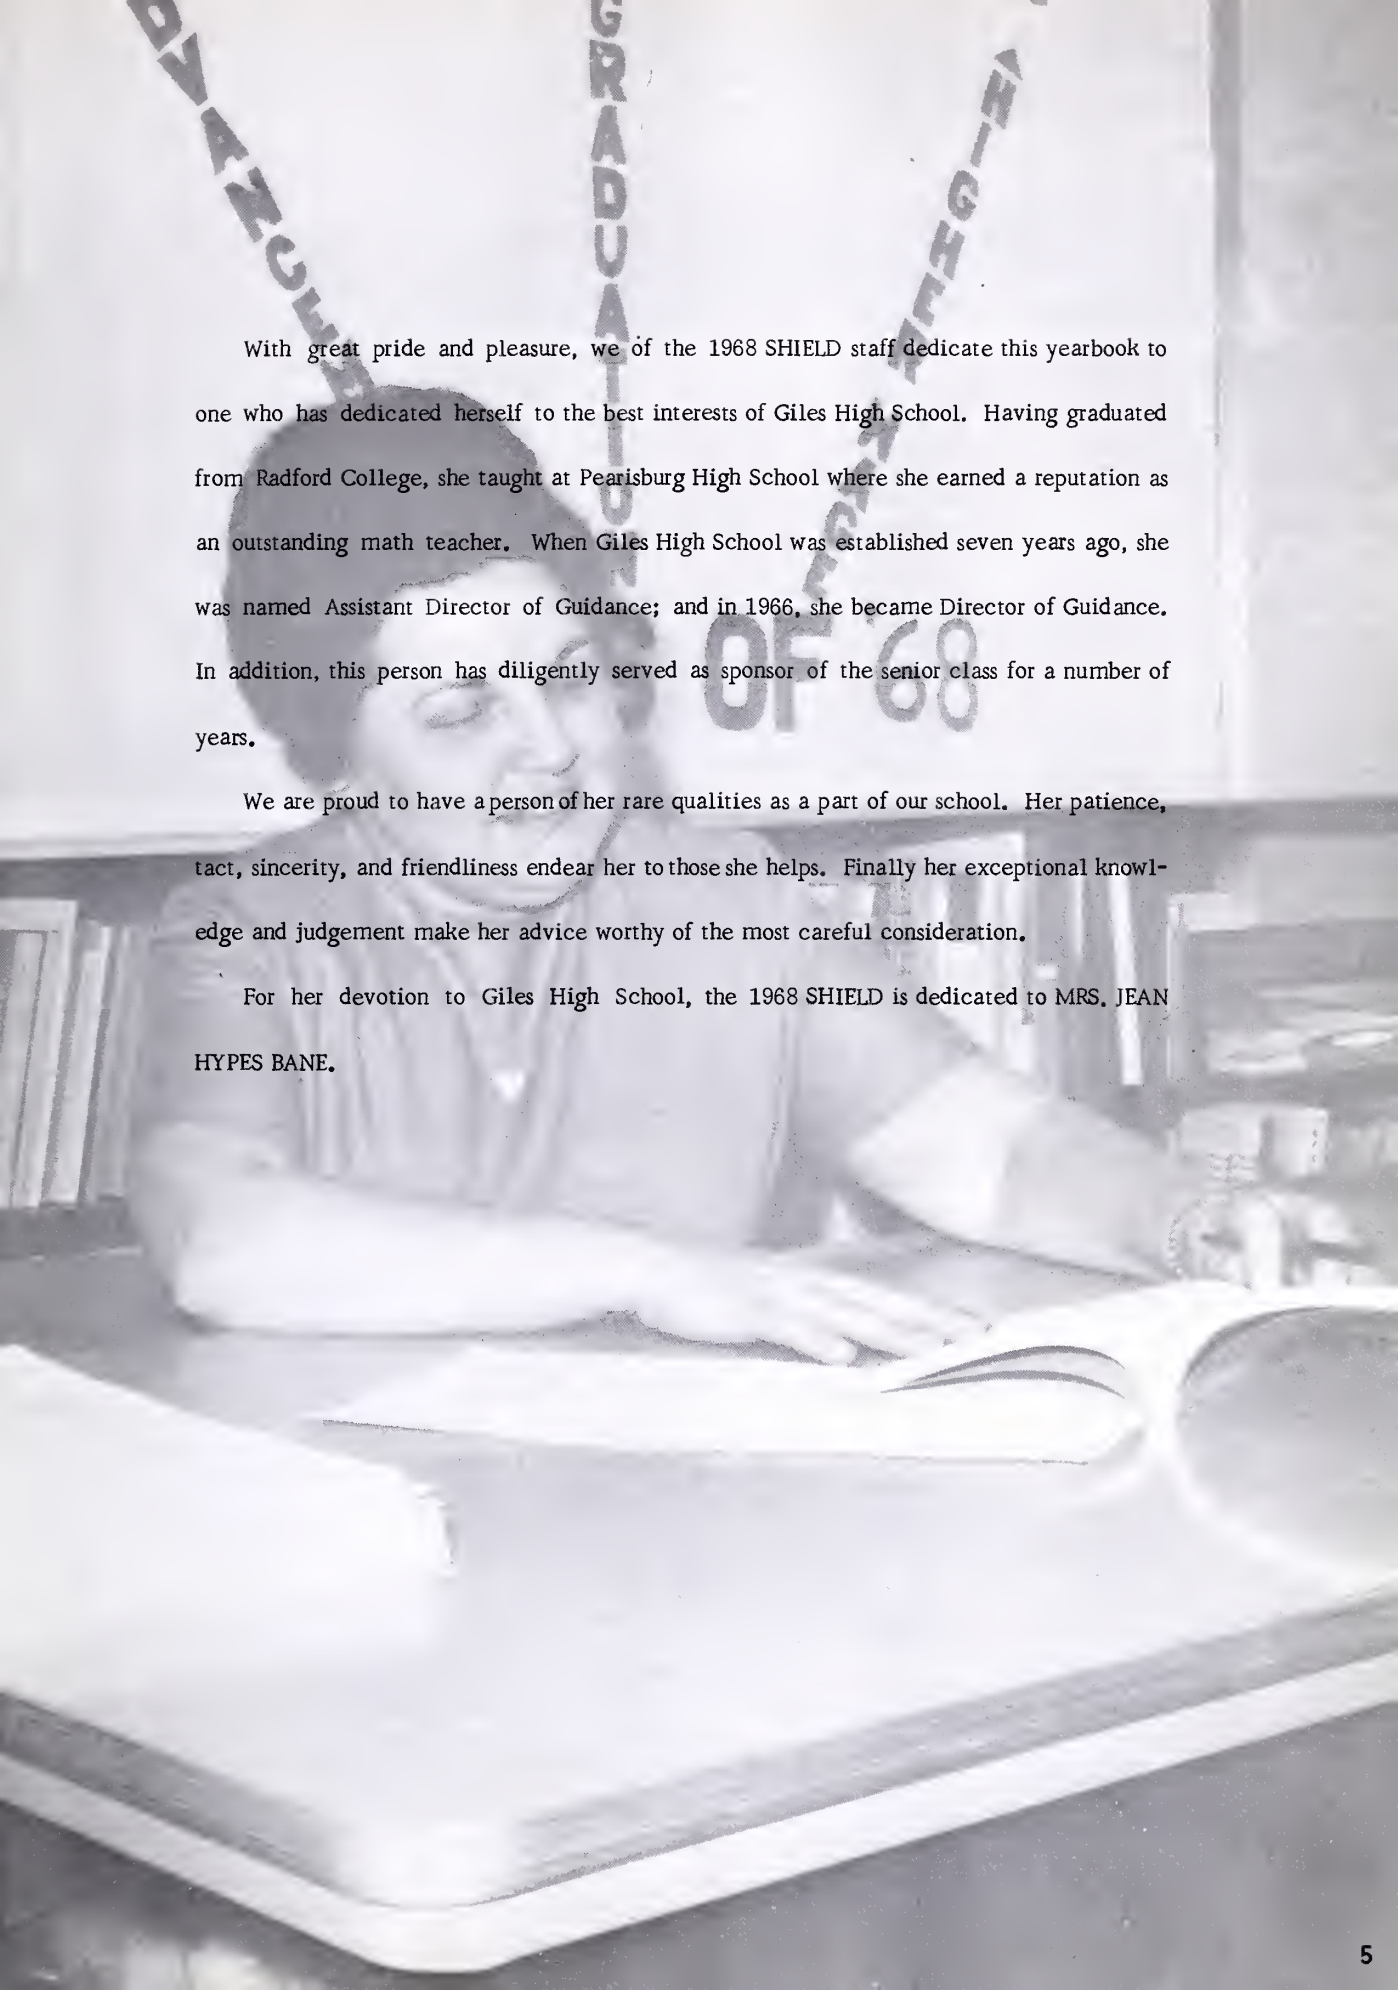

Each student will always cherish his pleasant memories of Giles High. Athletic events, the prom graduation, and other prominent occasions affected us, as did smaller, more personal happenings in our school. To preserve these memories, the 1968 SHIELD includes both outstanding events and typical everyday occurrences of our school.

The SHIELD also emphasizes a truth important to everyone. "For everything there is a season and a time for every purpose under heaven." Unless each student apportions his time wisely, he is unable to excel in both academic and extracurricular activities. Therefore, we learn to respect the value of time and to use it wisely.

Devotion to Giles High Earns
Mrs. Jean H. Bane '68 SHIELD Dedication

With great pride and pleasure, we of the 1968 SHIELD staff dedicate this yearbook to one who has dedicated herself to the best interests of Giles High School. Having graduated from Radford College, she taught at Pearisburg High School where she earned a reputation as an outstanding math teacher. When Giles High School was established seven years ago, she was named Assistant Director of Guidance; and in 1966, she became Director of Guidance. In addition, this person has diligently served as sponsor of the senior class for a number of years.

We are proud to have a person of her rare qualities as a part of our school. Her patience, tact, sincerity, and friendliness endear her to those she helps. Finally her exceptional knowledge and judgement make her advice worthy of the most careful consideration.

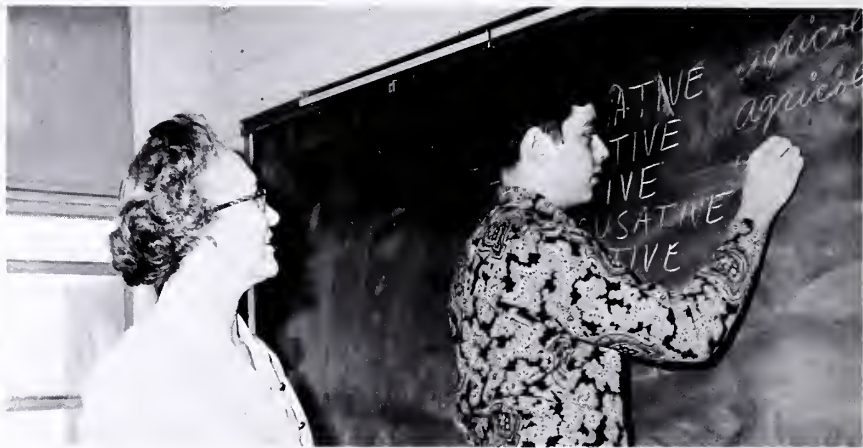

For her devotion to Giles High School, the 1968 SHIELD is dedicated to MRS. JEAN HYPES BANE.

A Look at Spartanland Reveals . . .

Reading and Writing . . .

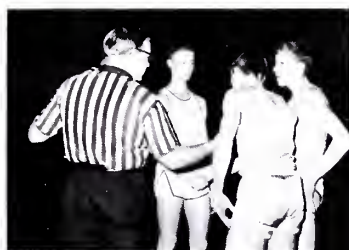

Aid in understanding a point . . . the library - a quiet place for research . . . must prove to teachers we know something after all . . . tests - a necessary evil . . . cramming for a test before school . . . the classroom - headquarters for learning.

. . . Spirit and Sportsmanship . . .

A tribute to devoted cagers . . . enthusiasm ran high . . . little things to bolster spirit . . . but still a disappointing season for the dedicated Spartans . . . good sportsmanship on the part of our athletes and supporters . . . "Come on, boys! Let's do it again!"

Fun and Friendship . . .

Daily conferences between friends during class . . .
Slave Day - an annual celebration . . . friends together after school . . . during school . . . and, of course, at the school dances . . . friends gathered together at "their spot" for fun and relaxation before the grind begins.

. . . and Just Plain Nonsense.

The "Las Vegas Room" at G.H.S. . . . muddy tennis shoes - a symbol of effort . . . a little neatness for the boys . . . and rah-rahs for the faculty . . . "The Insufferables" . . . people freezing, all for the love of a football game.

FACULTY

Mr. Coulson Liked, Respected in First Year at G.H.S.

Mr. Curtis G. Coulson, Principal of Giles High, earned his B.A. degree from Lynchburg College and his M.Ed. degree from the University of Virginia. Before coming to Giles High School he served as principal of an elementary school in Christiansburg. He now makes his home in Pearisburg with his wife, Patsy, and two boys, David and C. G., Jr.

Mr. Coulson has capably and efficiently handled the problems of Giles High. One of his most admirable traits is the friendly and sincere interest he takes in the students. We hope that this year will be his first of many pleasant years as Principal of Giles High School.

Mr. Conner Excels as Assistant Principal

A graduate of Concord College, Mr. Larry Conner first taught and coached at Princeton Junior High School. In 1965, he came to Giles as Physical Education instructor and head basketball coach. Mr. Conner has served as Assistant Principal since September, 1966. He now lives in Pearisburg with his wife and three sons.

Whether as athletic director, regulator of attendance, disciplinarian, or assistant to the Principal, Mr. Conner's strong, yet fair, handling of problems has gained him high respect.

Guidance Helps Students Plan Their Futures

A strong point in the faculty of Giles High is the Guidance Department, where Mrs. Jean Bane and Miss Pam Croy take an active interest in each student. In scheduling, each student is given expert advice as to which curriculum would be best for him. Group guidance sessions and personal conferences aid students in determining their futures. Between them, Mrs. Bane and Miss Croy possess such a vast amount of knowledge that they can help one solve almost any school problem.

We, the students of Giles High, are truly grateful to the cooks, who prepare excellent lunches, and the custodians, who keep our school clean in spite of us. Always willing to help, these hard-working men and women have attained a well-deserved popularity among the people they serve.

The Class of '68 enjoyed five exciting and worthwhile years at Giles High School. During those years there were times for success and times for disappointment. Nonetheless, looking back at our high school years, most of us will remember them as the happiest years of our lives.

"For everything there is a season and a time for every purpose under heaven." Our eighth grade year, 1963-1964, was "a time to adjust" to our new environment. Each of the 256 members of our class soon was accustomed to the routines of high school life. Courses of study and eighth grade sports prepared us for our later high school years, while friendships inseparably united the Class of '68.

As freshmen, Bill Danahy, Mary Beth Edwards, Donna Carol Martin, and Gilbert Wilkerson led the class as we constructed our first homecoming float. For the first time, our class members participated in junior varsity and varsity sports. Among our courses were foreign languages, algebra, speech, world history, and world geography. Election of two of our class members to S.C.A. offices climaxed a year that for upperclassmen had been "a time to recognize" our potential.

The sophomore year our class members entered most organizations in the school. Meanwhile, our athletes aided the school to an excellent basketball season and the district championship in golf. Geometry, distributive education, business math, and biology became parts of our school program. As officers, Steve Donovan, Mary Beth Edwards, Pam Carr, Marsha Mann, and Judy Kirk led the class. Over all, the sophomore year was "a time to participate" more actively in school activities.

Our junior year, featuring courses such as chemistry, Algebra II, English, mechanical drawing, shorthand, Distributive Education II, was for each student "a time to prepare" himself for his future. Intensive career planning, accompanied by ability and achievement, enabled us to understand better our potentialities. In our junior year, we also began to accumulate honors and to participate more actively in student activities. Seventeen of our class members were inducted in the Honor Society. In addition we began to make ourselves known athletically, as the basketball team, led by second team All-District Robert King, finished a fine season with a seven game winning streak. Measuring for class rings made us realize that we, the Class of 1968, were almost Seniors. As class officers, Alex Neely, David Coulthard, Barbara Blevins, Ted Johnson, and Janet Atchison organized the sale of candy to finance our Junior-Senior Prom, "Wonderland by Night." Altogether, the junior year was "a time to work."

Our senior year was filled with many memorable moments. Under our leadership, several organizations reached unprecedented heights. Honor was brought to our class when the Seniors won the girls basketball class tournament and when the Classroom Kwiz team achieved victory before an enormous audience. We were proud, too, when our own Mary Beth Edwards was named Mountain Lake's first Junior Miss. No day was more exciting than October 13, 1967, when we received our class rings and played our homecoming game. Our talent show, "Psychedelic '68," was a tremendous success, largely because of the dedication of our officers, Ted Johnson, Mike Journell, Janet Atchison, Barbara Blevins, and Brenda Fern. In the spring, the trip to the Barter Theater, the prom, "Paradise Isle," and the Awards Assembly provided us with many pleasant memories. The Baccalaureate and the Graduation solemnly completed our Senior year - "a time to lead" - and our high school careers.

Our high school years are now history. Each of us must proceed into the world to see what we can individually accomplish. A greater percentage (44.2%) of our class will pursue higher education than of any previous class. Those of us not continuing our educations also expect to contribute to the society in which we live. Thus, each of the 197 of us will find that "there is a place for us."

Seniors Honored in Awards Assembly

On Friday, May 31, the final assembly of the year was held to honor the Seniors. The Processional, the Pledge of Allegiance, and the invocation were followed by the installation of next year's SCA officers. The Chorale then sang "The Nation's Creed" and "Born Free", after which the Editors of the SHIELD dedicated the annual. Following the presentation of awards, the Seniors marched out of the auditorium.

The Student Cooperative Association acts as a democratic voice of the students of Giles High. Among its many projects, the SCA sponsors the concession stand at football games, takes charge of the Homecoming Parade, sponsors Giles' appearance on "Saturday Session", lines up assembly programs, and sends representatives to the state conference. The SCA is sponsored by Mrs. Esther Powell, Mrs. Ann Shelton, and Mrs. Phyllis Fisher.

For The Shield, 1968 Was

SHIELD Staff Representatives

Not content with the past excellence of the SHIELD, the 1968 staff dedicated itself to improving our yearbook in all possible ways. To do this, more money was required, so our staff worked diligently to break both the advertisement and subscription records. As a result, we are able to provide more complete coverage of school activities in a colorful, attractive manner. We hope the SHIELD is more meaningful and more unified because of the use of our theme, "For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven." If the 1968 SHIELD provides you pleasant memories, the many hours we spent on this yearbook will not have been in vain.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes Promotes Sportsmanship

Hoping to live more worthwhile Christian lives and to encourage others to do so, the varsity athletes of Giles High formed a "huddle group" of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes in December, 1967. Immediately, the F.C.A. became one of the most active Organizations in the school. Among the most significant projects were active participation in Young American Week and encouraging students to participate more actively in athletics. Interesting, well-attended meetings featured informal discussions of common problems, inspirational films, and intra-club athletic activities. The F.C.A. has had a dynamic first year and looks forward to even more ambitious undertakings in the future.

Theatre Comes of Age at Giles High . . .

Dramatics moved into its full-fledged position as an important area of student interest and activity with the formation of a new drama club, The Blue Masque. However, the Blue Masque is not just a drama club; it is more a "theatre group," because it offers activity for students interested in any area of show business, acting, staging, business managing, or just watching. With four successful one-act plays, as "superior" rating in the district drama festival, several field trips to area theatres, and a smash musical under its belt, The Blue Masque has proved that theatre has come of age at Giles High School.

Wednesday, May 15, found 52 Symphonic Chorale members, four chaperones, Mr. Archie Snyder and Miss Rebecca Lowdermilk leaving Giles High to begin their 1968 Spring Tour. Their destination was West Virginia's lovely State 4-H Camp, Jackson's Mill.

While on tour, the Symphonic Chorale presented concerts at Roosevelt-Wilson and Victory High Schools in Clarksburg, South Harrison High School in West Milford and Lewis County High School in Weston.

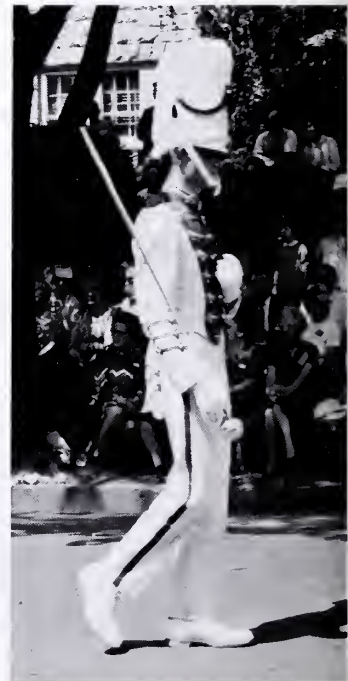

Aside from these concerts, the Symphonic Chorale sang for a convention that was taking place at Jackson's Mill.

Even though Tour calls for hard work, the Chorale always finds time for recreation. The members found enjoyment in sports and dancing at Jackson's Mill, bowling and their short but interesting tour of a glass factory.

The Chorale returned Sunday, May 19. They were all tired but happy because they had completed the very enjoyable and successful Spring Tour 1968.

On Wednesday, May 1, 1968, the Giles High Senior Band left for the annual Apple Blossom Festival in Winchester, Va. The band arrived at Luray, Va. that evening where they were lodged while on the trip.

Thursday morning the band members toured the famous Luray Caverns before leaving for Winchester, 45 miles away to compete in the Fireman's Parade. Following the parade they returned to Luray.

On Friday, they again headed for Winchester and the Grand Parade. With the thermometer on 90 the band marched six miles to the tune of "Sounding Brass" and a perfect drum cadence. Tired and with blistered feet they returned to Luray to a party and dance.

The band returned to Giles County on Saturday, May 4, with lingering, happy memories of a very enjoyable trip.

The Giles football team experienced a long and heartbreaking "67" season. Plagued by injuries and hard luck the Spartans finished with a 0-8-1 record. Despite the record the boys gave the Giles rooters plenty of action. This is evident in the fact that the team won four games in the statistic book but were unable to win on the scoreboard. The one tie was a thrilling game with Hillsville. Because of the injuries many Juniors and Sophomores got plenty of experience for the coming year.

This year's Spartans ended the season with an unimpressive 2-16 record. The team's lack of height and experience were the main reasons for the poor showing. The two bright spots in the schedule were the victories against the Dublin Dukes and the Hillsville Indians. After a very slow start, the Spartan Baseball team finished up the season with a 4 and 10 record. Lack of experience was the biggest factor in determining the outcome of the season, for many of the athletes on last year's team, which was tied for third place in the district, had graduated. Although this season didn't look very good the experience gained by the younger players was invaluable towards building a top-notch team for next year. Lack of depth in the pitching staff and in other positions also had a great bearing on the outcome of the season.

COACH GARY CLARK

The "68" golf team continued the success of previous years. Under Coach Clark's guidance the team posted a fine 10-1 record, losing only to District Champions, Blacksburg. At the State Tournament the boys placed a good eighth against stiff competition. Losing only one Senior by graduation, next year's team should carry on the winning ways.
